

FREE DEMO

WET & WORKABLE FLOWERS; Break the Myths with Jeanne Hyland

Saturday, March 14, 1:30 - 3:30 pm
at the Santa Fe Store

Break the myths of watercolor!
Keep your painting of any subject
wet and workable for hours in dry
New Mexico. Lift, paint back in, you will discover that watercolor is a most flexible and forgiving medium full of possibilities. This demo is for artists of all painting watermedia persuasions. Flowers will be the “subject”.

Ms. Hyland's holds a BFA degree from UNH in figurative sculpture and studied at École des Beaux Arts, France. Commercial design in Colorado preceded a return to Fine Art participating in Loveland Sculpture Invitational, Sedona Sculpture Walk. Jeanne adopted watercolor after moving to California where she instructed at: LA Academy of Figurative Art, Learning & Product Expo, Brand Library Studios. Jeanne now teaches in Santa Fe, Artisan's ART Spot & Expo, locations nationally and internationally.

JEANNE HYLAND

Her work has been exhibited in: AWS, NWS, Watercolor West, San Diego Watercolor Society (2006 Ana Drobnies Award), Valley Watercolor Society, New Mexico Watercolor Society. She is published in: "How Did You Paint That? 100 ways to paint still lifes and florals Vol. II" and is a contributor to a new 2013 Northlight book, Creative Freedom.

Register today at the front counter, or by calling 954-4179

THE ART SUPPLY SOURCE OF THE SOUTHWEST

2601 Cerrillos Road, Santa Fe, NM 87505